Everything in life may not be black and white, but in this tiny board-book world, black and white definitely rule the day. Todd Parr's aptly named Black & White features a black cat, a white mouse (that says "eek!" at the sight of the aforementioned cat), black night, white cloud, black boots, white underwear (remember Parr's Underwear Do's and Don'ts?), and so on. Each item (except the black night!) is squarely placed in the middle of the page against a brightly hued backdrop, with "BLACK ...

This is a great book to share with even the tiniest readers. The greater the contrast, the more an infant's eyes are going to be drawn to a pattern. Therefore black and white captures their attention the best. I've been reading this book to my baby since he was just 6 weeks old, and he continues to love it at 6 months.

So excellent customer service from this seller. Content wise I would rate this 4 stars compared to four other Todd Parr books (2 board books and 2 larger paper paged books I bought at the same time as this on Amazon) all of which I would rate 5 stars. Todd Parr's books and pictures are great for babies through toddler age.
