English as a second language. Many titles in the series also provide access to the pre-20th-century literature strands of the National Curriculum English Orders.

The fascinating process of translation in its many varieties is the subject of the essays in this book. Five of the essays discuss the theoretical aspects common to all works of translation. Other essays elucidate the particular processes of translating literature, drama, social science, classics, and songs. How computers can assist in translation and the economics of translation are the subjects of two of the essays. Considering translation as a discipline, the sixteen authors of these essays provide a complete perspective on translation for students considering translation as a career and for anyone interested in how a translation is made.

Potential for God, best-selling author, teacher, and pastor Dr. Charles F. Stanley lays out seven essentials to an abundant life—the life of purpose that God planned specifically for you. "You are not here by accident... You are here to accomplish a job that God assigned to you from eternity past." If you settle for less than God's best in your life, the world will lose your contribution, and you will miss the exhilaration of reaching your full potential. "It is an awesome, eye-opening, and inspiring thing to catch a glimpse of how God is working in your life— weaving together who He made you to be with those things He has prepared you to do and experience." Chapter by chapter, Dr. Stanley makes the biblical path to fulfilling your God-given potential clear, practical, and inspiring. Follow it to experience the joy, peace, and love that your heavenly Father has waiting for you. Read these pages, embrace these principles, and enjoy every moment of life at its best.

Annotation. A third volume of essays from various activities and events organized by the Centre for International Borders Research at Queens University of Belfast considers three modes in the analysis of culture and cross-border cooperation—cultures of co-operation, co-operation about culture, and the impact of culture on forms of co-operation—as possible strategies in the comparative social science
