"God Without Religion: Can It Really Be This Simple?" (or as I like to call it, "Bullshit-Free Christianity") by Andrew Farley is a brilliant and simple, but thought-provoking, story-driven book that looks at the nature of God's Law and the nature of God's Grace. It's both challenging and eye-opening to realise how much crap we believe isn't of God.

A wise spiritual mentor once told me that religion without spirituality is dead, and that spirituality without religion is lost. Without a vibrant personal spirituality, religion becomes mere tradition — blind obedience going through the motions. Religion becomes what Jesus referred to as "whitewashed tombs" — pretty on the outside but a rotting corpse on the inside.

Nontheistic religions are traditions of thought within a religious context—some otherwise aligned with theism, others not—in which nontheism informs religious beliefs or practices. Nontheism has been applied and plays significant roles in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Jainism. While many approaches to religion exclude nontheism by definition, some inclusive definitions of religion show how religious practice and belief do not depend on the presence of god. For example, Paul James and Peter ...

God Hates Religion. Yes, God hates religion.... I will give you Biblical support for that statement in a moment. Someone may be thinking "I thought God invented religion!". Sorry, but God invented Man and Man invented religion. Humankind is by our very nature, (designed so by our Creator) drawn to relationships.
