This fourth volume marks the definitive publication of the most important fossil finds in palaeoanthropology: Olduvai hominids 7, 13, 16 and 24 (popularly known to workers in the field as Jonny's Child, Cindy, George and Twiggy). Found from 1960 in Olduvai Gorge and dating from 1.9 to 1.6 million years ago, they were identified in 1964 by Louis Leakey and the author amidst great controversy as a hitherto unrecognised species of the genus Homo, named by then Homo habilis on account of its apparent tool-making abilities. Professor Tobias develops this conclusion through extensive analysis of the cranial and endocranial material and teeth and comparison with a treasury of data, much of its original, on early hominds from South and East Africa, Asia and Europe, as well as modern human and anthropoid ape specimens. He offers a substantial exploration of the place of Homo habilis in human evolution, its status in relation to the australopithecines and Homo erectus and its apparent capacity for spoken language, which he sees as the key to the staggering enlargement of the human brain over the last two million years.

A multidisciplinary overview of the entire field of evolutionary studies, written to honor the trailblazing paleoanthropologist, F. Clark Howell, and his interdisciplinary view of the search for human origins.

A guide to travel, accommodations, sightseeing, nightlife, and recreation

Do you feel like you need a change in your life? If you feel like your prayers, praise and worship are lacking life, that your time in the Word is dry and forceful, that you serve God without seeing any tangible results...this book is for you. In a candid style, David Greco will bring revelation to your life and show you it is in the desert that many times the Holy Spirit manifests His presence with power. In Renew Me, the author describes the work of the Holy Spirit in five disciplines: prayer, praise, worship, bible study and service. He details his journey to this discovery and teaches us how to: Radically change your attitude Not to depend on spiritual experiences Be conformed to the heart of God Receive a renewed and fresh touch
