Missionary position is common among partners and is characterized by face-to-face interaction. The standard position of this type is the missionary position where the woman lies back with legs apart. The man lies on top and may use the position for anal or vaginal intercourse. At some point, the woman may dangle her leg on the edge of the platform or lift them towards the ceiling in what is commonly known as the butterfly position. You could practice the same while kneeling. In another variation, the woman may rest the legs on the shoulders of the man. In a coital alignment position, the man points the penis down to make it rub against the clitoris as they make an upward movement. Besides, the woman lies back and raises the legs to the head or put them next to the ears. The man then holds the partner's ankle or instep and lies at the full length of the woman. Most partners prefer this style for it nurtures them emotionally and physically. They can communicate and read body language as they engage in intimacy.
