Leer y escribir suele ser un problema para muchos alumnos universitarios. Estudian, pero tienen dificultades para comunicar a sus evaluadores lo que saben. Contestan cuando se les pregunta, pero las respuestas no satisfacen a los docentes. Los profesores prestan atención a partes de los textos que los estudiantes ponderaron irrelevantes. Los alumnos privilegian lo que los profesores dejan de lado. Parece que falta ponerse de acuerdo sobre qué se exige. Las instituciones en las que se difunden conocimientos oficialmente tienen modos propios de comunicación. La universidad es una de esas instituciones. Los ingresantes necesitan iniciarse específica y sistemáticamente de esos modos tradicionales de comunicación para alcanzar logros satisfactorios en el ámbito universitario. Es ese un aprendizaje que debe, en verdad, comenzar antes, en los estudios previos con los que cada uno accede a la totalidad. En este manual se presenta una estrategia para ayudar a leer y escribir como se demanda en la universidad. Es una estrategia que se despliega (y se ha puesto a prueba) en los talleres de lectura y escritura de Semiología (cátedra de la profesora Elvira Arnoux del Ciclo Básico Común de la Universidad de Buenos Aires. En cada capítulo de este manual se explican conceptos no sólo para orientar la disposición que para la lectura y la escritura deberían tener los alumnos sino también para guiar la organización de esas mismas actividades. Cada sección incluye actividades de taller en las que se recuperan child's death and La Maga's disappearance put an end to his life of empty pleasures and intellectual acrobatics, and prompt Oliveira to return to Buenos Aires, where he works by turns as a salesman, a keeper of a circus cat which can truly count, and an attendant in an insane asylum. Hopscotch is the dazzling, freewheeling account of Oliveira's astonishing adventures.

relationship between theory and practice? How does 'World' archaeological theory differ from 'European'? Can one be a good practitioner without theory? This unique book brings together contributors from many different countries and continents to provide the first truly global perspective on archaeological theory. They examine the nature of material culture studies and look at problems of ethnicity, regionalism, and nationality. They consider, too, another fundamental of archaeological inquiry: can our research be objective, or must 'the past' always be a relativistic construction? Theory in Archaeology is an important book whose authors bring together very different perceptions of the past. Its wide scope and interest will attract an international readership among students and academics alike.

Corporate Finance, by Ross, Westerfield, and Jaffe emphasizes the modern fundamentals of the theory of finance, while providing contemporary examples to make the theory come to life. The authors aim to present corporate finance as the working of a small number of integrated and powerful intuitions, rather than a collection of unrelated topics. They develop the central concepts of modern finance: arbitrage, net present value, efficient markets, agency theory, options, and the trade-off between risk and return, and use them to explain corporate finance with a balance of theory and application. The well-respected author team is known for their clear, accessible presentation of material that makes this text an excellent teaching tool. The ninth edition has been fully updated to reflect the recent financial crisis and is now accompanied by Connect, an exciting new homework management system.
