I am Princess Tanvi, and I have become a refugee in a cruel desert that seeks to kill me. ? My kingdom was destroyed, and I had no choice but to run. I found myself in the city of Ashana, under the rule of Sultan Zahid and Queen Benua. I attempted to steal something of theirs to preserve my life, and was captured. As payment, I'm forced to become a servant to their eldest daughter, Ameera, and must hide my true identity. No one can know that I have magic. ? But the queen suspects that I'm hiding something, and is watching my every move. To make matters worse, I've fallen in love with her son... Prince Tamarik, the Mad Stallion of Ashana...

Sadly the days of the traditional studio apprenticeship in animation are long gone but this book enables the reader to find the next best thing, watching and observing a Master Animator at work. Become Tony White's personal animation apprentice, and experience the golden era of the great Disney and Warner Brothers studios right in your own home or studio. Tony White's Animation Master Class is uniquely designed to cover the core principles of animated movement comprehensively. It offers a DVD with animated movies and filmed excerpts of the author at his drawing board to illustrate the concepts as the work is being created. Tony White's Animation Master Class offers secrets and unique approaches only a Master Animator could share. The book comes out of the author's six years of real-world professional experience teaching animation, and 30 years of professional experience. Whether you want to become a qualified animator of 2D, 3D, Flash or any other form of animation, Tony White's foundations bring you closer to that goal. The DVD is invaluable, in that readers are not only taught principles and concepts in the book, they are able to see them demonstrated in action in the movies on the DVD.

The aim of this book is to provide students and practitioners with a clinical text on the investigation and management of binocular vision anomalies by methods other than medicine and surgery.

Coral has always been different than other young ladies and not just because of the circumstances of her birth. When her sister, Esther, moves west to Montana to be a mail order bride, she goes with her, hoping that she will quickly find a husband herself and not long be a burden on her sister and her new husband. She agrees to meet any of the men her brother-in-law finds suitable for her, hoping she will find a match and leave the newlyweds' home. Jackson is new to the rural area of Montana where he is now teaching. When he's approached by one of the local ranchers to meet his younger sister-in-law, he goes along with it, because he realizes having a wife would make his life a great deal easier. Upon meeting Coral, he is initially put off by her bold manner, but he agrees to the match, and soon the couple is off to Lost Legacy to marry. Will he be able to get past Coral's boldness to see the woman within? Or will they spend the rest of their lives in a loveless marriage?

The second book in the Telling Time sequence helps children learn how to develop their time-telling skills by including minutes. By using a variety of different activities to keep children engaged, this workbook helps children learn this difficult skill without feeling frustrated or anxious.

A fresh look at agoraphobia, the fear of leaving one's home, argues that the suffers, mostly women, are reacting against the self-denial required of them by marriage and society
