The Book Thief by Marcus Zusak was the best-selling debut literary novel of the year 2007, selling over 400,000 copies. The author is a prize-winning writer of children's books, and this, his first novel for adults, proved to be a triumphant success. The book is extraordinary on many levels: moving, yet restrained, angry yet balanced -- and ...

The Book Thief is a very unique story, partly because it is narrated by death and partly because it is such a different plot to anything I have ever read before! The way this book is written is genius and I have to congratulate the author on making this such an interesting read : other reviews say it gets boring but I can assure you, it definitely doesn't.

The edition of The Book Thief I read is the 10th Year Anniversary, so there is an interview with Markus Zusak at the end of the story. He informs the reader of his love for Rudy. I absolutely share this love for Rudy. Rudy is a spontaneous, boisterous and loud personality. I love the way he knows what he wants and goes to get it.
