The Pope vs. Habermas: Reason & Religion in Secular Society

As Hegel says, dialectics is "the principle of all natural and spiritual life" (SL-M 56; SL-dG 35), or "the moving soul of scientific progression" (EL §81). Dialectics is what drives the development of both reason as well as of things in the world. A dialectical reason can overgrasp a dialectical world.

Secularization: Definition and Examples - ThoughtCo

In sociology, secularization is the transformation of a society from close identification with religious values and institutions toward nonreligious values and secular institutions. The secularization thesis expresses the idea that as societies progress, particularly through modernization and rationalization, religious authority diminishes in all aspects of social life and governance. As a second meaning, the term "secularization" may also occur in the context of the lifting of monastic restrict
