After some summer training, Dan was assigned to teach fourth grade at P. S. 85 , which had a sign over it's door proclaiming it to be "The Great Expectations School." This school is located in the poorest Congressional District in New York City. After Dan Brown graduated from NYU's film school in 2003, he decided to apply to become New York City Teaching Fellow.

eager, fresh-faced teacher. Unbeknownst to him, his assigned class, 4-217, was the designated "dumping ground" for all fourth-grade problem cases, and his students would prove to be more challenging than he could ever anticipate. Intent on being a caring, dedicated teacher but confronted with unruly children, absent parents, and a failing ...
